Prime Minister Sees Setback To Germany In Destroyer Trade

Britain Will Refuse To Recognize Any Territorial Changes In Balkans, Commons Is Told

By FREDERICK KUH

British United Press. Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.
LONDON, Sept. 5.—Prime Minister Winston Churchill warned Britons that German aerial attacks would be "magnified and multiplied" in a bid for victory this month, but that Adolf Hitler's empire will "pass away perhaps more swiftly than did Napoleon's."

Churchill, taking up Hitler's challenge, said that he had confidence that Britain would beat Germany in a contest of nerves, will power and endurance because Britain is becoming stronger daily.

The prime minister addressed the House of Commons on the prospect of intensified aerial attack while London was under an air alarm that delayed the beginning of his speech. Nazi airplanes trailing smoke that made a huge swastika in the sky, had interrupted the opening of the session, sent the members to basement air raid shelters and given weight to Hitler's threat of mass attacks.

Reinforcements Sent To Middle East

The prime minister in his speech said:

1.—Britain has sent a "continuous stream" of reinforcements into the middle east to oppose the Italian offensive in the Mediterranean.

2.—Destroyers received in the "memorable" trade with the United States are being put into action immediately, but it would be an error to attempt to make the deal out as anything more than stated in the notes exchanged.

3.—Germany has lost three planes to every British craft destroyed in the battle of Britain and has lost pilots at the ratio of six to one. The British Air Force today is stronger than at any past time, and "far nearer" to the German strength than had been expected.

4.—Great Britain will refuse to recognize any territorial changes in the Balkans—where Germany, Soviet Russia and Hungary have acquired territory—unless they are with the "free consent and good will" of the nations involved.

The Nazi fuzer, Churchill declared, suffered a setback when the United States traded 50 over-sea destroyers for leases on British naval base sites in the Atlantic ocean and "no doubt pay the United States out if he gets a chance."

He said that the agreement represents simply mutual measures of assistance rendered to each other by two friendly powers in a spirit of confidence.

He said that the British crews already are meeting the destroyers at various ports where they are being delivered.

Pact Will Encourage Britain's Friends

The British-United States agreement, said Churchill, will encourage Britain's friends throughout the world but he warned that "it would be a mistake to try to read into the official notes more than the documents bear on their face."

Churchill declared that in her daylight raids against Britain, Germany has planned a ratio of three to one and pilots at a ratio of six to one.

Churchill said that only ignorant persons would suggest that the transfer of the destroyers constituted the slightest violation of international law or affected the non-belligerency of the United States.

Enable U.S. Take Danger By Throat

"I am glad that the armed air and naval frontiers of the United States have been advanced along a wide area into the Atlantic zone," he said. "This will enable them to take danger by the throat while it is still hundreds of miles from the homeland."

THIRTY-FOUR NAZI PLANES BAGGED TODAY

Two Air Raid Alarms In London As Germans Repulsed

By WALLACE CARROLL
British United Press. Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.
LONDON, Sept. 5.—British fighters and ground fire drove back German planes which attacked yesterday. Today, there were two air raid alarms in London, the first in the morning and the second in the evening.

Official estimates are that at least 34 German planes have been shot down today. Official figures placed German plane losses up to late afternoon at 14. The air raid hour security minutes said that seven of the German losses occurred in one battle over southeast England. Two German planes were reported down during the afternoon raid.

Bombs dropped by German fighters were described by observers as especially bitter. British defense forces broke up this morning's main attack on London but some German planes succeeded in penetrating the London area and they dropped several bombs. Little damage resulted from the morning raid, according to the official announcement, but damage was inflicted upon the enemy.

By Canadian Press
The air raid on London yesterday indicated no great harm was done in London, but gas and water mains were broken, a hospital was hit, and another narrowly missed during the attack in the northwest. Several casualties resulted from the bomb hits on the hospital.

One Messerschmitt fighter crashed in a thickly populated southeastern area during air fights over the Thames estuary that resulted in four deaths.

Today's War Moves

By J. W. T. MASON
British United Press. War Expert

HITLER'S speech in Berlin yesterday has special military importance because of its attack on Great Britain for mutual cessation of night air bombing. Hitler described the British attack on Germany as "a desperate and it seems probable that this part of his speech was due to pressure of the German people, disgusted by hostilities in the dark."

The Fuehrer's protest marks his first defensive utterance since the beginning of the war. Hitler has always spoken entirely about forthcoming offensives. Yesterday, however, he indicated that Germany was in a defensive position by eliminating night raiding.

It is strange that Hitler tries to lay the blame for the war on the surface after his frequent references to Germany's military superiority. But, as a matter of fact, Germany's aviation strength and his promise to the German people that they would be guaranteed a more secure life. It was necessary to improve instruction for them, and Germany has for three months' delay in hitting back. German air specialists always suffer up to the present to employ them to guard against surprise. This misjudgment is the most serious the German air command has made in the war. Hitler now tries to rectify it by urging success of night attacks.

NO TRAINING

Hitler's statement that he would wait three months before retaliating against British night bombing attacks was a tactical move. But, as a matter of fact, Germany has had no training in night bombing operations and operations in the air were necessary to improve instruction for them, and Germany has for three months' delay in hitting back. German air specialists always suffer up to the present to employ them to guard against surprise. This misjudgment is the most serious the German air command has made in the war. Hitler now tries to rectify it by urging success of night attacks.

HULL DELIVERS FIRM WARNING TO JAPANESE

French Indo-China and Shanghai Subjects Of Sharp Rebuke

By ROBERT C. MONTAGUE
British United Press. War Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Administration sources today interpreted Secretary of State Cordell Hull's double warning to Japan as an indication that the United States will rely on its destroyers to hold the line in the far east.

They predicted that the edge of American attitudes toward Japan will grow keener in direct proportion to the strengthening of Atlantic defenses.

So long as German military might remains a threat to the United States, they observed, this government cannot risk war with Japan and the resultant need of defending both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts with a one-ocean navy.

With an off-shore ring of steel protecting the Atlantic coast from any possible invasion of the Western hemisphere, the United States can afford to ignore the Japanese, with a regularly supplied fleet, these sources asserted.

First of Hull's public statements dealt with French Indo-China where Japan is reported to have delivered an ultimatum to local officials, demanding the right to transport Japanese troops through Indo-China and to use Indo-China.

DEATH LEGION WILL RESIST HUNGARIANS

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer
CLUJ, Transylvania, Sept. 5.—A volunteer legion from the Transylvania border to the Rumanian border has volunteered for membership in a "death legion" to resist Hungarian occupation of the territory.

The men were said to have pledged to return to the combat zone of the Carpathians in the vicinity of Oradea which is a unit due to be turned over to Hungary until tomorrow.

Behind the fortress walls volunteers were reported ready to fight "to show the world that Rumania has courage."

A Rumanian official here asserted he had heard nothing of any organized resistance, but reports in Hungary that Rumanians would head the "death legion."

The Italian fleet was sighted only once, at a distance of 15 miles, and it was steaming in the direction of the island of Rhodes. Italian airplanes at Moritz and Canale in Rhodes were heavily bombed by the fleet. Twenty-one planes were destroyed at Canale and ammunition dumps set on fire.

Bucharest Says King Carol May Abdicate Soon

Monarch Surrenders Power of State to New Strong Man—Consents to Banishment of Lupescu

BUCHAREST, Sept. 5.—One person was known to have been killed and a number wounded when troops fired tonight on demonstrators in Bucharest's main street, Calea Victoriei. The shooting occurred when the crowd forced a command to disperse and marched through the street shouting: "Long live Antonescu." (Ion Antonescu, Rumania's new premier.)

By ROBERT ST. JOHN
Associated Press Staff Writer

BUCHAREST, Sept. 5.—Haggard from the struggle to preserve his shattered, anarchy-riven realm, King Carol II of Rumania surrendered his vast power of state today to a new strong man and was authoritatively reported to have consented to banishment of red-haired Magda Lupescu.

Government quarters expressed belief Carol must abdicate soon.

Madame Lupescu, his long-time friend, was reported already aboard the royal yacht, now anchored at Istanbul. She was said to have left Bucharest four days ago.

With the coming of dawn, the 60-year-old monarch, who lived down the name "playboy prince" with a decade of strong-minded rule, reached a "royal understanding" with a tough, strategy-minded general, Ion Antonescu, whose price for success was a transfer of power.

On high authority it was reported Carol had bowed to the demand of the new ruler, who was a former premier that his friend Magda Lupescu be banished from the country. Carol had himself only a few days ago.

The Carol-Antonescu bargain was reached about the time the vanguard of Rumanian soldiers planted their banners in Transylvania, the province which Rumania won in the last war settlement and about half of which Hungary regained in 1940. The Rumanian army had been in the hands of Germany and Italy.

In connection with the transfer of power, there were reported reports of clashes in which more than 100 Rumanian soldiers were killed.

On the all-night conference in Carol's heavily guarded palace, 50-year-old Gen. Antonescu emerged, with a list of demands, which he accomplished by words alone. One of the General's first acts after taking power was to order the arrest of the king's ministers.

Representing the elevator interests were A. C. Reid and W. M. Reid, North West Line Elevators Co.; H. E. Griffin and J. L. Martin, United Grain Growers; J. E. Bennett, owner of the Alberta Wheat Pool, and J. H. Warren, Saskatchewan Co-Operative Wheat Pool.

Representing banks were H. A. Jaffray, president of the Bank of Montreal, and J. B. Marsh, general manager Bank of Toronto; A. E. Arscott.

Norway's Royal Refugees—Safe In America

Dear Mother:
I am very glad that I had want to tell you that I like it very much here in Canada. We may leave the lights on whenever we want, and we don't even need to have a gas mask now. I miss you very much and hope you are fine and safe.

Love,
Joy

The above might have been the letter of any one of the hundreds of evacuee British children now in Canada. Write to his or her mother in England, for this little girl's letter expresses the feeling of them all.

Berlin Attacked By Avenging British Bombers

In their first real attack on the German capital since start of the war, British bombers roared over Hitler's costly new chancellery and other important buildings, in the heart of Berlin. They swept through a barrage that appeared to have brought into action every anti-aircraft gun in the city, including those in Hitler den, London 11, at Brandenburg Gate 12 and along the Wilhelmstrasse 13. Fewest bombs were in 14 and American embassy at 15. The Nazis at first claimed the rockets dropped only 12 bombs, but later admitted bombs had fallen.

Height Of Romance

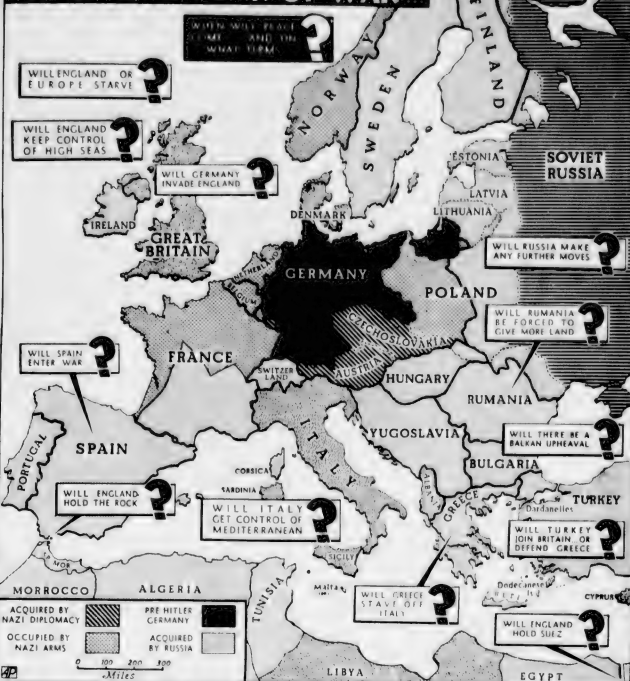

A high time was had by all at the recent wedding of Anna Rudolph and Ann Haxford, of New York. The ceremony was performed with little pomp, music and wedding presents, setting in a garden, 50 feet up at the New York World's Fair marriage jump. Here the highly romantic couple saying "I do" to Bessie Homer A. Tomlinson, right.

Mexican "Tourist"

Laughingly declaring that he is just a "tourist," Gen. Juan Almazan, anti-government candidate in recent Mexican Presidential elections, is pictured at the Baltimore home of his brother, Dr. Leonides Almazan. Gen. Almazan said he was "making time" until results of balloting are announced.

AFTER ONE YEAR OF WAR

Largely from the knowledge of the Axis, the map shows the progress of the war. The map shows the progress of the war. The map shows the progress of the war.

Expanding with almost overnight speed, the Germans captured vast eastern western Europe. The swastika flies from the Baltic to Spain, in occupied territory.

And yet all Europe is plastered with question marks that must be answered before it can find peace.

Unsubstantiated rumors of a "World War" have been spread.

Poland, Holland, Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg, Denmark, these, for practical purposes, have ceased to exist—at least temporarily—as entities.

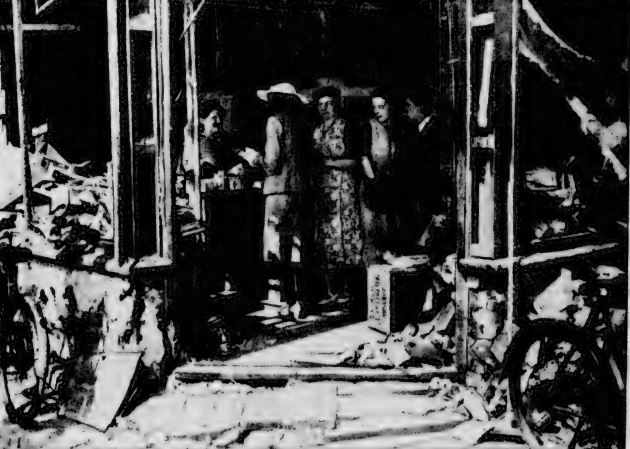

Russia has been active, extending control over small provinces while Germany held the center of the stage. Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia made concessions, then were absorbed into the Soviet Union.

RUMANIA YIELDS
Rumania's succumbed to a surprise play and ended Bessarabia and northern Bessarabia to the Soviet, and fell still further revenue. Rumania, gallant but battered, gave up Vapir, leased a naval base, lost chance of better in the Arctic.

Russia got a lot worse of Poland in the "divvy" of that prestate country with Germany.

Elsewhere there is change, unbelievable so recently as September 1, 1939.

France and England now guarantee the freedom of Rumania.

"Business As Usual During Alterations" At London Store

Although German bombs made some very drastic "alterations" in this suburban London store, the shopkeeper is carrying on with the slogan "Business as Usual."

Here's One Big Fish That Didn't Get Away

British naval units operating in the Gulf of Aden had some luck recently when they bagged this huge Italian submarine. An armed trawler spotted the sub's periscope, so blasted it with depth-bombs that it was forced to surface and surrendered. Photo shows the captured U-boat being towed to port by a British destroyer.

MOOSE GET 7-1 WIN OVER PODERSKYS

In First City Softball Title Game

MOOSE took a 7-1 decision in softball over Poderskys' Furniture Wednesday night at Kingsway park in the first of the three-game series for the junior men's city title.

The losers were limited to two hits in the abbreviated game. Sunny Wheatfield pitched the first three innings for the winners and struck out two and gave four walks but allowed no runs.

George Barnes did the chucking for the last two frames, and whiffed four. Jack Crickbank had a three-bagger and a strike and drove in three runs in the process. Norm and Chickie got Podersky's pair of hits in the first frame.

The Moose chalked up three runs in the opening inning. Lucien Trosko, first man up walked and was forced at second when Gil-mour got a life on a fielders choice. Gil continued to second on a passed ball and went to third on Vane's sacrifice, scoring when Wheatfield threw an error. Bob Clelland hit safely and both runners advanced on a second passed ball. They scored when Crickbank singled to center.

In the third Paul Vane lifted one out to right field and pulled up at the third station when Wheatfield threw an error. He crossed home plate on Bob Clelland's sacrifice, scoring. He was out on an infield grounder and sent another run in.

The Moose took another brace of runs in the fifth. Wheatfield doubled for the Moose's first safe and Bob Clelland reached first. Wheatfield forced Bob at second but the first baseman doubled off at first on a fly ball. Wheatfield scored. Bob Haxby hit sent the second run over.

Podersky's lone counter came in the last frame. Mike Cheknie doubled for the Moose's first safe blow, stole third and scored on an error.

The Furniture boys made double killing in the fourth, the play being Harris to Seiden to Barr.
